Subject: For the personal attention of Nuno Matos

Good morning, Mr Matos.

My name is Glenn Alexander Thompson.

Some time ago, via its subsidiary Esanda, ANZ was party to a particularly serious property fraud that included Esanda and its then solicitor, John Norman Price, literally using Victorian courts as tools of fraud and, as mortgagee, selling land in fraudulent circumstances.

Sufficient particulars are set out in my several earlier letters to directors of the ANZ Bank. Those earlier letters are available at the following links.

Westpac-ANZ 20th August 2015 – Courts On Trial
ANZ-05-06-18 – Courts On Trial
ANZ-26-7-16 – Courts On Trial
ANZ-28-04-16 – Courts On Trial

Those links are part of the extensive material set out in my website, Courts On Trial – Exposing corrupt Australian Courts, Judges, Magistrates, Lawyers, Government & Banks.

That website, including the above-linked letters, abundantly demonstrates that the now retired Victorian Supreme Court Judge, Justice Robert Osborn, corruptly fabricated purported reasons for judgement that were in part specifically contrived to deny and conceal the abovementioned use of courts and circumstances of the land sale by Esanda.

As you will see from the above links, while fully aware of abundant evidence of the foregoing things, the then incumbent directors, including David Gonski AC, refused to stand up and assist me to expose the court-based corruption that arose as a direct consequence of ANZ conduct.

They also did the other things set out in those letters, including refusing to intervene in the forced fire sale of my home, which forced sale was directly caused by the fact that Osborn concealed and denied the abovementioned ANZ conduct.

In my considered opinion the refusal to stand up and the refusal to intervene demonstrated a complete lack of integrity of those individual directors and the entire ANZ board.

In relation to all of these things, I have published a new website, Glenn Thompson – Exposing corrupt Australian Courts, Judges, Lawyers, Government & Banks

The purpose of that website and the material published on it, and yet to be published, including YouTube videos, is to bring international disrepute upon the civil justice system of Victoria and upon the ANZ directors who have refused to stand up and others.

My method of bringing that international disrepute is set out on that website.

Respectfully, I require you to forward a copy of this email to each present ANZ director.

My future communications and publications will be on the premise that you have complied with that request.

I now particularly draw the attention of each current director to the YouTube video entitled "Time, Climate, Crooked Science, Courts, and Banks" that is available on my new website.

That video is, in part, an open video letter to each one of the present ANZ directors; photographs of each are included in the video.

Shortly after sending, a copy of this email will be published on my website and in the description of the abovementioned video.

I will hold the present directors, individually and collectively, answerable for any response, or lack thereof, to this email.

I look forward to having the present directors stand with me against court-based and corporate corruption.

Regards,

Glenn Thompson
