Subject: Notice of the open YouTube video letter to the Chief Justice of Victoria and others.

Good morning.

My name is Glenn Thompson.

I have published on YouTube what is in part an open video letter to each of the Chief Justice of Victoria, the President of the Court of Appeal, the Chief Magistrate and the Attorney General of Victoria.

Each of the abovementioned people is depicted and directly addressed in the video.

It is also an open video letter to the directors of the ANZ Bank, which is party to some of the things set out in the video.

The main subject of that video is the flagrant and extensive corruption of the so-called civil justice system of Victoria.

The video also includes matters of significant international interest.

The specific purpose of the video is to bring international disrepute upon the civil justice system of Victoria and others, including the ANZ Bank.

The video and introduction may be found on my new website that I have created for the purpose of publicising the video and its content and the official response to the video.

My new website is <https://glennthompson.au>
